

1 BILL NO. G--83-08-50 (AS AMENDED)

2 GENERAL ORDINANCE

NO. G-23-82

3 FAIR CAMPAIGN ORDINANCE

4 WHEREAS, the citizens of the City of Fort Wayne deserve
5 fair campaigns for City offices, and;

6 WHEREAS, every citizen should have an equal opportunity
7 to be elected to office regardless of his or her financial re-
8 sources, and;

9 WHEREAS, limiting campaign contributions would equal-
10 ize the opportunities for citizens to be elected to City office, 11 and;

12 WHEREAS, large campaign contributions can improperly
13 influence, or appear to improperly influence, a public office-
14 holder, and;

15 WHEREAS, every citizen of the City of Fort Wayne has
16 the right to know the sources of a candidate's campaign financ-
17 ing, and;

18 WHEREAS, the State of Indiana does not place a ceiling
19 on the amount of all contributions to a candidate nor does the
20 State mandate sufficiently frequent disclosures of campaign fi-
21 nancing;

22 WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne
23 believes that the best interests of the citizens of this com-
24 munity would be served by limiting campaign contributions and 25 by requiring frequent disclosures of campaign financing during
26 campaigns for City offices.

27 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL
28 OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA:

29 SECTION 1. Definitions. The terms herein referred
30 to shall have the meanings as herein described:

31 (a) "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomina-
32 tion for election, or election, to City office, whether or not such individual is elected, and, for purposes of this ordinance, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election, to City office if he or she has:

(1) Taken the action necessary under Indiana Law to qualify himself or herself for nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(2) Solicited or received contributions or made expenditures, or has given his or her consent for any other person to solicit or receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view toward bringing about nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(3) Publicly announced or declared that he or she is a candidate for City office.

(b) "City office" means the offices of Mayor, Clerk, and all members of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(c) "Clerk" means the City Clerk of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(d) "Commission" means the Fair Campaign Commission created by Section 4 of this ordinance.

(e) "Common Council" means the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(f) "Contribution" means:

(1) A gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value (except a loan of money from any governmentally regulated financial institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, in the ordinary course of business), made to or on behalf of a candidate or a political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(3) Funds received by a political committee, which are transferred to that committee from another political committee, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(4) The payment, by any person for the personal services of another person which are rendered to a candidate or political committee without charge for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office. Provided, however that this subsection does not apply to any payment made by a candidate or political committee for personal services provided directly to that candidate or political committee for the purposes of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(5) An expenditure made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office, if the expenditure is made by any person other than a candidate or his or her committee and is authorized or requested by, or made in co-operation, consultation or concert with, the candidate, an authorized committee of the candidate, or an agent of the candidate.

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing meanings of contribution, the word shall not include services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate of political committee.

(g) "Election" means all general and primary elections for City offices.

(h) "Expenditure" means:

(1) A purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(3) A transfer of funds by a political committee to another political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(i) "Mayor" means the Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(j) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, committee, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, or group of persons, including, but not limited to, political committees, governmental and quasi-governmental entities, and all boards, departments, commissions, bureaus, or agencies thereof.

(k) "Political committee" means any individual or group of persons whose primary purpose is to influence the nomination or election of any person or persons to office.

(l) "Reporting period" means the period covered by each report, pursuant to Section 3(c) of this ordinance.

(m) "Treasurer" means the treasurer of a political committee.

SECTION 2. Financing Limitations.

(a) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall make any contribution to or for a candidate or political committee, which will cause the total amount contributed by such person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(2) No candidate or political committee shall accept any contribution which will cause the total amount contributed by that person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(3) No person shall make any contribution, which will cause the total amount of political contributions by such person, to or for all candidates or political committees, apportioned

in any manner among them, to exceed Twenty
Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary,
the contribution limitations of Section 2(a), here-
of, shall not apply to any corporation or labor organization, or any candidate with respect to his or her own nomination for election, or election, to
City office.

(c) For the purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, no person shall make a contribution in the name of another person and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another person.

(d) For purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, all contributions made by a person, either directly or indirectly, on behalf of a particular candidate, including contributions which are in anyway earmarked or otherwise directed through an intermediary or conduit for such candidate, shall be treated as contributions from such person in support of such candidate.

(e) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall endorse, secure, guarantee,
pledge or sign for loans from any governmentally
regulated finance institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, exceeding an aggregate of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00)
for the purpose of influencing the nomination
for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

(2) No political committee shall borrow more than Twenty Thousand Dollars* ($20,000.00) from a single governmentally regulated finance institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election of any person or persons to City office.

SECTION 3. Disclosure of Finances. This section applies to all political committees which are accepting contributions or making expenditures for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(a) Each treasurer of a political committee shall keep a detailed and current account of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee.

(b) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file a report of contributions and expenditures, containing the information required by Section 3(d), with the Office of the City Clerk, on the last business day of each month, for each of the three months preceding the month of an election. The first report hereunder shall be due on the last business day of September, 1983.

(c) Each report shall cover a one-month period, ending on the fifteenth day of the month in which the report is due.

(d) The report required by this chapter shall contain:

(1) The amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period.

(2) The total amount of individual contributions to or for the political committee during the reporting period.

(3) The full name and mailing address of each person who has made aggregate contributions exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) during the calendar year to or for the political committee.

(4) For those persons referred to in Section 3(d) (3), the total amount of contributions made during the reporting period, to or for the political committee, if any, plus the aggregate amount of all such contributions during the calendar year.

(5) The amount of each loan to the political committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the lender and endorsers, if any, and the date of the loan. Plus, the amount of each loan from the committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the person to whom the loan was made, and the date of the loan.

(6) The total sum of all receipts of the political committee during the reporting period.

(7) The total amount of debts and obligations owed by or to the political committee.

(8) The total sum of expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee during the reporting period.

(9) The full name, mailing address, occupation and principal place of business, if any, of each person to whom any expenditure was made by or on behalf of the political committee, if expenditures exceeding an aggregate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) have been made to that person during the calendar year.

(10) For the persons referred to in Section 3(d)(9) the amount, date and purpose of each expenditure during the reporting period, if any and the total amount of expenditures to that person during the calendar year.

(e) Reports required to be filed by this section shall be available for inspection by the Commission and by the public at the Office of the City Clerk.

SECTION 4. Fair Campaign Commission.

(a) A Fair Campaign Commission is hereby established, which shall consist of three members. The initial term for the Commission members shall commence upon the initial appointment subsequent to passage hereof and shall terminate, December 31, 1986. Thereafter, the Commission members shall serve for four year terms beginning January 1, 1987. The first members of the Commission shall be appointed within two weeks of the passage of this ordinance.

(b) The County Chairmen of the two political parties receiving the most votes in the last election for City offices shall each appoint one Commission member. The third member shall be appointed by the ~~Mayor~~ the above two. All members shall be residents of the City of Fort Wayne.

(c) The duties of the Commission shall include:

(1) Inspecting reports required to be filed by this ordinance.

Page Ten

(2) Investigating possible violations of this ordinance.

(3) Providing evidence of possible violations of this ordinance to appropriate law enforcement officials.

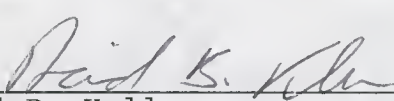

SECTION 5. Penalties. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) for each violation.

SECTION 6. Severability of Provisions. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held or declared to be invalid, void or unconstitutional, such holding or declaration shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter; and to this end, the provisions of each subsection herein are declared to be severable.

SECTION 7. Effective Date. This ordinance is effective upon passage and approval by the Mayor and upon due publication.

TITLE OF ORDINANCE Fair Campaign Ordinance

DEPARTMENT REQUESTING ORDINANCE _____

SYNOPSIS OF ORDINANCE This ordinance limits individual contributions in support of a single candidate to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per City election. A person may not contribute more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for all candidates in a City election. The ordinance prohibits persons from guaranteeing more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) in loans per election, and no political committee can borrow more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) from a single bank. Political committees must file reports of campaign financing monthly for the three months before an election. The ordinance creates a Fair Campaign Commission to investigate possible violations of the above provisions.

EFFECT OF PASSAGE Will promote a fair campaign for the City offices.

It will limit the specter of improper influences from large campaign contributions and will provide the public with information about campaign financing.

EFFECT OF NON-PASSAGE Opposite of the above.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on the 29th day of August, 19 83, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, in a Special Session did pass the following BILL NO. G-83-08-50 (AS AMENDED)
General Ordinance to-wit:

1 BILL NO. G-83-08-50 (AS AMENDED)

2 GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. G-23-83

3 FAIR CAMPAIGN ORDINANCE

4 WHEREAS, the citizens of the City of Fort Wayne deserve
5 fair campaigns for City offices, and;

6 WHEREAS, every citizen should have an equal opportunity
7 to be elected to office regardless of his or her financial re-
8 sources, and;

9 WHEREAS, limiting campaign contributions would equal-
10 ize the opportunities for citizens to be elected to City office, 11 and;

12 WHEREAS, large campaign contributions can improperly
13 influence, or appear to improperly influence, a public office-
14 holder, and;

15 WHEREAS, every citizen of the City of Fort Wayne has
16 the right to know the sources of a candidate's campaign financ-
17 ing, and;

18 WHEREAS, the State of Indiana does not place a ceiling
19 on the amount of all contributions to a candidate nor does the
20 State mandate sufficiently frequent disclosures of campaign fi-
21 nancing;

22 WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne
23 believes that the best interests of the citizens of this com-
24 munity would be served by limiting campaign contributions and
25 by requiring frequent disclosures of campaign financing during
26 campaigns for City offices.

27 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL
28 OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA:

29 SECTION 1. Definitions. The terms herein referred
30 to shall have the meanings as herein described:

31 (a) "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomina-
32 tion for election, or election, to City office,

3 whether or not such individual is elected, and, for 4 purposes of this ordinance, an individual shall be 5 deemed to seek nomination for election, or elec-6 tion, to City office if he or she has:

- 7 (1) Taken the action necessary under Indiana Law
8 to qualify himself or herself for nomination
9 for election, or election, to City office, or 10 (2) Solicited or received contributions or made
11 expenditures, or has given his or her consent
12 for any other person to solicit or receive 13 contributions or make expenditures, with a 14 view toward bringing about nomination for 15 election, or election, to City office, or 16 (3) Publicly announced or declared that he or 17 she is a candidate for City office.

24 created by Section 4 of this ordinance.
- 25 (e) "Common Council" means the Common Council of the 26 City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.
- 27 (f) "Contribution" means:
28 (1) A gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit
29 of money or anything of value (except a loan
30 of money from any governmentally regulated
31 financial institution, such as a bank or sav-
32 ings and loan company, in the ordinary course

3 of business), made to or on behalf of a can-
4 didate or a political committee for the purpose
5 of influencing the nomination for election, or 6 election, of any person to City office;

7 (2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or 8 written, expressed or implied, whether or not 9 legally enforceable, to make a contribution
10 for the purpose of influencing the nomination
11 for election, or election, of any person to 12 City office;

13 (3) Funds received by a political committee, 14 which are transferred to that committee from 15 another political committee, for the purpose
16 of influencing the nomination for election,
17 or election, of any person to City office;

18 (4) The payment, by any person for the personal
19 services of another person which are rendered
20 to a candidate or political committee
21 without charge for the purpose of influencing 22 the nomination for election, or election, of 23 any person to City office. Provided, however 24 that this subsection does not apply to any 25 payment made by a candidate or political com-
26 mittee for personal services provided directly 27 to that candidate or political committee for 28 the purposes of influencing the nomination for 29 election, or election, of any person to City
30 office.

31 (5) An expenditure made for the purpose of in-32 fluencing the nomination for election, or 33 election, of any person to City office, if 34 the expenditure is made by any person other than a candidate or his or her committee and is authorized or requested by, or made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, the candidate, an authorized committee of the candidate, or an agent of the candidate.

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing meanings of contribution, the word shall not include services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate of political committee

(g) "Election" means all general and primary elections for City offices.

(h) "Expenditure" means:

(1) A purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(3) A transfer of funds by a political committee to another political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(i) "Mayor" means the Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(j) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, committee, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, or group of persons, including, but not limited to, political committees, governmental and quasi-governmental entities, and all boards, departments, commissions, bureaus, or agencies thereof.

(k) "Political committee" means any individual or group of persons whose primary purpose is to influence the nomination or election of any person or persons to office.

(l) "Reporting period" means the period covered by each report, pursuant to Section 3(c) of this ordinance.

(m) "Treasurer" means the treasurer of a political committee.

SECTION 2. Financing Limitations.

(a) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall make any contribution to or for a candidate or political committee, which will cause the total amount contributed by such person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(2) No candidate or political committee shall accept any contribution which will cause the total amount contributed by that person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(3) No person shall make any contribution, which will cause the total amount of political contributions by such person, to or for all candidates or political committees, apportioned

in any manner among them, to exceed Twenty
Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary,
the contribution limitations of Section 2(a), here-
of, shall not apply to any corporation or labor organization, or any candidate with respect to his or her own nomination for election, or election, to
City office.

(c) For the purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, no person shall make a contribution in the name of another person and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another person.

(d) For purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, all contributions made by a person, either directly or indirectly, on behalf of a particular candidate, including contributions which are in anyway earmarked or otherwise directed through an intermediary or conduit for such candidate, shall be treated as contributions from such person in support of such candidate.

(e) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall endorse, secure, guarantee,
pledge or sign for loans from any governmentally
regulated finance institution, such as a bank
or savings and loan company, exceeding an aggregate of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00)
for the purpose of influencing the nomination
for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

(2) No political committee shall borrow more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) from a

2
3 single governmentally regulated finance insti-
4 tution, such as a bank or savings and loan
5 company, for the purpose of influencing
6 the nomination for election, or election of 7 any person or persons to City office.

8 SECTION 3. Disclosure of Finances. This section applie
9 to all political committees which are accepting contributions or 10 making expenditures for the purpose of influencing the nomination
11 for election, or election, of any person to City office.

12 (a) Each treasurer of a political committee shall keep 13 a detailed and current account of all contributions
14 received and all expenditures made by or on behalf 15 of the political committee.

16 (b) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file
17 a report of contributions and expenditures, con-
18 taining the information required by Section 3(d), 19 with the Office of the City Clerk, on the last 20 business day of each month, for each of the three 21 months preceding the month of an election. The 22 first report hereunder shall be due on the last
23 business day of September, 1983.

24 (c) Each report shall cover a one-month period, ending 25 on the fifteenth day of the month in which the 26 report is due.

27 (d) The report required by this chapter shall contain:
28 (1) The amount of cash on hand at the beginning of 29 the reporting period.

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. G-23-83

FAIR CAMPAIGN ORDINANCE
WHEREAS, the citizens of the City of Fort Wayne deserve fair campaigns for City offices, and;

WHEREAS, every citizen should have an equal opportunity to be elected to office regardless of his or her financial resources, and;

WHEREAS, limiting campaign contributions would equalize the opportunities for citizens to be elected to City office, and;

WHEREAS, large campaign contributions can improperly influence, or appear to improperly influence, a public office-holder, and;

WHEREAS, every citizen of the City of Fort Wayne has the right to know the sources of a candidate's campaign financing, and;

WHEREAS, the State of Indiana does not place a ceiling on the amount of all contributions to a candidate nor does the State mandate sufficiently frequent disclosures of campaign financing;

WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne believes that the best interests of the citizens of this community would be served by limiting campaign contributions and by requiring frequent disclosures of campaign financing during campaigns for City offices.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. The terms herein referred to shall have the meanings as herein described:

(a) "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to City office, whether or not such individual is elected, and, for purposes of this ordinance, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election, to City office if he or she has:

(1) Taken the action necessary under Indiana Law to qualify himself or herself for nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(2) Solicited or received contributions or made expenditures, or has given his or her consent for any other person to solicit or receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view toward bringing about nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(3) Publicly announced or declared that he or she is a candidate for City office.

(b) "City office" means the offices of Mayor, Clerk, and all members of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(c) "Clerk" means the City Clerk of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(d) "Commission" means the Fair Campaign Commission created by Section 4 of this ordinance.

(e) "Common Council" means the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(f) "Contribution" means:

(1) A gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value (except a loan of money from any governmentally regulated financial institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, in the ordinary course of business), made to or on behalf of a candidate or a political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(3) Funds received by a political committee, which are transferred to that committee from another political committee, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(4) The payment, by any person for the personal services of another person which are rendered to a candidate or political committee without charge for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office. Provided, however, that this subsection does not apply to any payment made by a candidate or political committee for personal services provided directly to that candidate or political committee for the purposes of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(5) An expenditure made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office, if the expenditure is made by any person other than a candidate of his or her committee and is authorized or requested by, or made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, the candidate, an authorized committee of the candidate, or an agent of the candidate.

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing meanings of contribution, the word shall not include services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate of political committee.

(g) "Election" means all general and primary elections for City offices.

(h) "Expenditure" means:

(1) A purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(3) A transfer of funds by a political committee to another political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, of any person to City office.

(i) "Mayor" means the Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(j) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, committee, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, or group of persons, including, but not limited to, political committees, governmental and quasi-governmental entities, and all boards, departments, commissions, bureaus, or agencies thereof.

(k) "Political committee" means any individual or group of persons whose primary purpose is to influence the nomination or election of any person or persons to office.

(l) "Reporting period" means the period covered by each report, pursuant to Section 3(c) of this ordinance.

(m) "Treasurer" means the treasurer of a political committee.

SECTION 2. Financing Limitations.

(a) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall make any contribution to or for a candidate or political committee, which will cause the total amount contributed by such person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(2) No candidate or political committee shall accept any contribution which will cause the total amount contributed by that person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(3) No person shall make any contribution, which will cause the total amount of political contributions by such person, to or for all candidates or political committees, apportioned in any manner among them, to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the contribution limitations of Section 2(a), hereof, shall not apply to any corporation or labor organization, or any candidate with respect to his or her own nomination for election, or election, to City office.

(c) For the purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, no person shall make a contribution in the name of another person and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another person.

(d) For purposes of the limitations imposed by this section, all contributions made by a person, either directly or indirectly, on behalf of a particular candidate, including contributions which are in anyway earmarked or otherwise directed through an intermediary or conduit for such candidate, shall be treated as contributions from such person in support of such candidate.

(e) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall endorse, secure, guarantee, pledge or sign for loans from any governmentally regulated financial institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, exceeding an aggregate of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

(2) No political committee shall borrow more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) from a single governmentally regulated financial institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

SECTION 3. Disclosure of Finances.
This section applies to all political committees which are accepting contributions or making expenditures for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(e) Each treasurer of a political committee shall keep a detailed and current account of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee.

(b) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file a report of contributions and expenditures, containing the information required by Section 3(d), with the Office of the City Clerk, on the last business day of each month, for each of the three months preceding the month of an election. The first report hereunder shall be due on the last business day of September, 1983.

(c) Each report shall cover a one-month period, ending on the fifteenth day of the month in which the report is due.

(d) The report required by this chapter shall contain:

(1) The amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period.

(2) The total amount of individual contributions to or for the political committee during the reporting period.

(3) The full name and mailing address of each person who has made aggregate contributions exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) during the calendar year to or for the political committee.

(4) For those persons referred to in Section 3(d) (3), the total amount of contributions made during the reporting period, to or for the political committee, if any, plus the aggregate amount of all such contributions during the calendar year.

(5) The amount of each loan to the political committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the lender and endorser, if any, and the date of the loan. Plus, the amount of each loan from the committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the person to whom the loan was made, and the date of the loan.

(6) The total sum of all receipts of the political committee during the reporting period.

(7) The total amount of debts and obligations owed by or to the political committee.

(8) The total sum of expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee during the reporting period.

(9) The full name, mailing address, occupation and principal place of business, if any, of each person to whom any expenditure was made by or on behalf of the political committee, if expenditures exceeding an aggregate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) have been made to that person during the calendar year.

(10) For the persons referred to in Section 3(d) (9) the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure during the reporting period, if any, and the total amount of expenditures to that person during the calendar year.

(e) Reports required to be filed by this section shall be available for inspection by the Commission and by the public at the Office of the City Clerk.

SECTION 4. Fair Campaign Commission.

(a) A Fair Campaign Commission is hereby established, which shall consist of three members. The initial term for the Commission members shall commence upon the initial appointment subsequent to passage hereof and shall terminate, December 31, 1986. Thereafter, the Commission members shall serve for four-year terms beginning January 1, 1987. The first members of the Commission shall be appointed within two weeks of the passage of this ordinance.

(b) The County Chairmen of the two political parties receiving the most votes in the last election for City offices shall each appoint one Commission member. The third member shall be appointed by the above two. All members shall be residents of the City of Fort Wayne.

(c) The duties of the Commission shall include:

(1) Inspecting reports required to be filed by this ordinance.

(2) Investigating possible violations of this ordinance.

(3) Providing evidence of possible violations of this ordinance to appropriate law enforcement officials.

SECTION 5. Penalties. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) for each violation.

SECTION 6. Severability of Provisions. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held or declared to be invalid, void or unconstitutional, such holding or declaration shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter; and to this end, the provisions of each subsection herein are declared to be severable.

SECTION 7. Effective date. This ordinance is effective upon passage and approval by the Mayor and upon due publication.

Dear Ms. Kennedy:

I am sure you have read that the Attorney General of the State of Indiana has given an official opinion that Fort Wayne's "Fair Campaign" ordinance is illegal. I would not want to propagate this illegal activity. Therefore, although I was appointed as a commissioner, I want to advise that I am refusing to function.

Very truly yours,

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on the 29th day of August, 1983, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, in a Special Session, did pass the following BILL NO. G-83-08-50 (AS AMENDED) General Ordinance to wit:

appear to improperly influence, a guarantee, pledge or sign for loans from any governmentally regulated finance institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, exceeding an aggregate of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

WHEREAS, every citizen of the City of Fort Wayne has the right to know the sources of a candidate's campaign financing, and;

WHEREAS, the State of Indiana does not place a ceiling on the amount of all contributions to a candidate nor does the State mandate sufficiently frequent disclosures of campaign financing;

WHEREAS, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne believes that the best interests of the citizens of this community would be served by limiting campaign contributions and by requiring frequent disclosure of campaign financing during campaigns for City offices.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. Definitions. The terms herein referred to shall have the meanings as herein described:

(a) "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to City office, whether or not such individual is elected, and, for purposes of this ordinance, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election, to City office if he or she has:

(1) Taken the action necessary under Indiana Law to qualify himself or herself for nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(2) Solicited or received contributions or made expenditures, or has given his or her consent for any other person to solicit or receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view toward bringing about nomination for election, or election, to City office, or

(3) Publicly announced or declared that he or she is a candidate for City office.

(b) "City office" means the offices of Mayor, Clerk, and all members of the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(c) "Clerk" means the City Clerk of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(d) "Commission" means the Fair Campaign Commission created by Section 4 of this ordinance.

(e) "Common Council" means the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(f) "Contribution" means:

(1) A gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value (except a loan of money from any governmentally regulated financial institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, in the ordinary course of business), made to or on behalf of a candidate or a political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(3) Funds received by a political committee, which are transferred to that committee from another political committee, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office;

(4) The payment, by any person for the personal services of another person which are rendered to a candidate or political committee without charge for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office. Provided, however, that this subsection does not apply to any payment made by a candidate or political committee for personal services provided directly to that candidate or political committee for the purposes of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(5) An expenditure made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office, if the expenditure is made by any person other than a candidate of his or her committee and is authorized or requested by, or made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, the candidate, an authorized committee of the candidate, or an agent of the candidate.

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing meanings of contribution, the word shall not include services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering a portion or all of their time on behalf of a candidate of political committee.

(g) "Election" means all general and primary elections for City offices.

(h) "Expenditure" means:

(1) A purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(2) A contract, promise, or agreement, oral or written, expressed or implied, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure for the purpose of influencing the nomination, or election, of any person to City office.

(3) A transfer of funds by a political committee to another political committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, of any person to City office.

(i) "Mayor" means the Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(j) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, committee, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, or group of persons, including, but not limited to, political committees, governmental and quasi-governmental entities, and all boards, departments, commissions, bureaus, or agencies thereof.

(k) "Political committee" means any individual or group of persons whose primary purpose is to influence the nomination or election of any person or persons to office.

(l) "Reporting period" means the period covered by each report, pursuant to Section 3(c) of this ordinance.

(m) "Treasurer" means the treasurer of a political committee.

SECTION 2. Financing Limitations.

(a) With respect to a single election:

(1) No person shall make any contribution to or for a candidate or political committee, which will cause the total amount contributed by such person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(2) No candidate or political committee shall accept any contribution which will cause the total amount contributed by that person, in support of a single candidate, to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and

(3) No person shall make any contribution, which will cause the total amount of political contributions by such person, to or for all candidates or political committees, apportioned in any manner among them, to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the contribution limitations of Section 2(a), hereof, shall not apply to any corporation or labor organization, or any candidate with respect to his or her own nomination for election, or election, to City office.

(1) No person shall endorse, secure, guarantee, pledge or sign for loans from any governmentally regulated finance institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, exceeding an aggregate of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

(2) No political committee shall borrow more than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) from a single governmentally regulated finance institution, such as a bank or savings and loan company, for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person or persons to City office.

SECTION 3. Disclosure of Finances. This section applies to all political committees which are accepting contributions or making expenditures for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election, of any person to City office.

(a) Each treasurer of a political committee shall keep a detailed and current account of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee.

(b) Each treasurer of a political committee shall file a report of contributions and expenditures, containing the information required by Section 3(d), with the Office of the City Clerk, on the last business day of each month, for each of the three months preceding the month of an election. The first report hereunder shall be due on the last business day of September, 1983.

(c) Each report shall cover a one-month period, ending on the fifteenth day of the month in which the report is due.

(d) The report required by this chapter shall contain:

(1) The amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period.

(2) The total amount of individual contributions to or for the political committee during the reporting period.

(3) The full name and mailing address of each person who has made aggregate contributions exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) during the calendar year to or for the political committee.

(4) For those persons referred to in Section 3(d)(3), the total amount of contributions made during the reporting period, to or for the political committee, if any, plus the aggregate amount of all such contributions during the calendar year.

(5) The amount of each loan to the political committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the lender and endorser, if any, and the data of the loan. Plus, the amount of each loan from the committee within the reporting period, together with the full name and mailing address of the person to whom the loan was made, and the date of the loan.

(6) The total sum of all receipts of the political committee during the reporting period.

(7) The total amount of debts and obligations owed by or to the political committee.

(8) The total sum of expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee during the reporting period.

(9) The full name, mailing address, occupation and principal place of business, if any, of each person to whom any expenditure was made by or on behalf of the political committee, if expenditures exceeding an aggregate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) have been made to that person during the calendar year.

(10) For the persons referred to in Section 3(d)(9) the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure during the reporting period, if any, and the total amount of expenditures to that person during the calendar year.

(e) Reports required to be filed by this section shall be available for inspection by the Commission and by the public at the Office of the City Clerk.

SECTION 4. Fair Campaign Commission.

(a) A Fair Campaign Commission is hereby established, which shall consist of three members. The initial term for the Commission members shall commence upon the initial appointment subsequent to passage hereof and shall terminate, December 31, 1988. Thereafter, the Commission members shall serve for four-year terms beginning January 1, 1987. The first members of the Commission shall be appointed within two weeks of the passage of this ordinance.

(b) The County Chairman of the two political parties receiving the most votes in the last election for City offices shall each appoint one Commission member. The third member shall be appointed by the above two. All members shall be residents of the City of Fort Wayne.

(c) The duties of the Commission shall include:

(1) Inspecting reports required to be filed by this ordinance.

(2) Investigating possible violations of this ordinance.

(3) Providing evidence of possible violations of this ordinance to appropriate law enforcement officials.

SECTION 5. Penalties. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) for each violation.

SECTION 6. Severability of Provisions. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held or declared to be invalid, void or unconstitutional, such holding or declaration shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter; and to this end, the provisions of each subsection herein are declared to be severable.

SECTION 7. Effective date. This ordinance is effective upon passage and approval by the Mayor and upon due publication.
